World Peace Festival Conditions

1. Indemnity:

- Attendees agree to indemnify and hold harmless the organisers and facilitators of the Festival for World Peace from any claims, damages, liabilities, and expenses arising out of participation in the event.

2. Weather and Force Majeure:

- The festival is an outdoor event, and attendees acknowledge that the schedule and activities may be affected by weather or unforeseen circumstances. The organisers reserve the right to alter, postpone, or cancel the event in such cases, with no obligation for refunds.

3. No Substance Policy:

- The Festival for World Peace maintains a strict no-substance policy. Attendees are prohibited from bringing or using any illegal substances, and those found in violation will be immediately removed from the event.

4. Program Changes:

- The festival program is subject to change without prior notice. Attendees understand and acknowledge that changes to the schedule or lineup do not entitle them to a refund.

5. Photographs and Videos:

- Attendees grant the Festival for World Peace the right to use photographs, videos, or other media taken during the event for promotional and marketing purposes without compensation.

6. Wristbands:

- Wristbands must be worn at all times during the festival. Lost or damaged wristbands may result in denied entry or being told to leave the event.

7. Footwear Compulsory:

- For safety and hygiene reasons, footwear is compulsory, apart from in rooms or the temple, while within the festival grounds. Attendees without proper footwear may be denied entry.

9. Security and Safety:

- Attendees must comply with all security measures in place, and any refusal may result in denied entry or removal from the festival. The organisers are not responsible for any lost or stolen belongings.

10. Health and Medical:

- Attendees are responsible for their own well-being. First Aid assistance will be available onsite, and attendees should promptly seek help if needed. The
